

Example of Regional Supervisor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of regional supervisor. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for regional supervisor

- Supervises the operation of the electric system
- Monitors, operates and maintains control of the transmission, distribution and station facilities
- Supervises regional operators and associated personnel
- Insures compliance with Company standards
- Promote safety and provides reliable electric service and directs emergency restoration of generating and electrical systems following contingencies
- Implement strategies and deploy resources to meet collection targets and objectives
- Establish and maintain effective Internal and External working relationships
- Act as the owner of the complete accounts receivable balance and process for all sites, entities and segments supported by the team
- When appropriate, sets up files of adjusters, checking for coverage, adequate reserves and acts as a resource for answering claims questions
- Reviews claim correspondence and provides counsel on further action

Qualifications for regional supervisor

- Minimum of 5 years experience in Project management and Supply Chain planning, ideally in garment/garment accessories industry
- Well-organized and detail-oriented, plus follow-through and multitasking abilities
- Good numerical sense

- Bachelor's degree and 1 years supervisory experience in centralized and multi-state environment preferred
- 3 to 5 years supervisory experience in centralized and multi-state environment