Our growing company is looking for a registered nurse emergency room. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for registered nurse emergency room

- A registered professional nurse is responsible for delivery of patient care through the nursing process of assessment, planning, implementation and evaluation
- Must be able to perform all functions of the staff R.N., triage responsibilities, and demonstrates competence with all Emergency Room procedures
- The Registered Nurse in this department provides care for birth to pediatric, pediatric/child patients between 1 to 11 years of age
- The Registered Nurse provides therapeutic and administrative services necessary for the care of the patient, and in support of the mission of Lee's Summit Medical Center Hospital
- The Emergency Department RN will obtain a broad spectrum of nursing skills and should be able to handle the stresses of a crisis situation and still display a tolerant, calm appearance and professional attitude
- They will coordinate with ancillary departments for the provision of treatment and care of emergency department patients and the orderly transfer of patients
- He/she must work effectively with fellow employees from all units
- He/she should also be able to delegate authority and accept responsibility for own actions and the actions of those under their supervision
- They must fulfill the standard of professional ethics and demonstrate exceptional customer service skills while acting as a role model and resource

- Formulates a plan of care based on trends of similar patients, including patient education and discharge planning

Qualifications for registered nurse emergency room

- 1 year of emergency room acute care experience preferred
- AHA BLS Certification -- within two (2) weeks of employment
- AHA ACLS Certification-- within eight (8) weeks of employment
- ENPC Certification -- within twelve (12) months of employment
- TNCC Course -- within twelve (12) months of employment
- Arrhythmia Recognition Course -- within eight (8) weeks of employment