

Example of Registered Nurse Wound Care Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of registered nurse wound care. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for registered nurse wound care

- Adheres to guidelines or standards of practice
- Safety precautions are implemented as needed by professional judgment/policy and procedures
- Demonstrates consistent use of OSHA guidelines and Universal Precautions
- Communicable diseases are reported per policy
- Demonstrates competent utilization of interview, examination and observation techniques with patients and significant others
- Prepares and implements a plan for care of wound patient by second outpatient encounter using established algorithm, policies and procedures in collaboration with the physician, the patient and significant others
- Keeps patient plans for care updated to reflect changes in conditions and response to therapies or education
- Provides continuity of care for patients as plan of care may involve multiple disciplines, products, and sites for care including inpatient care, outpatient procedures and clinic care
- Demonstrate flexibility with staffing needs coordinating with physicians, patients and co-workers
- Participates in the CQI process, review and revision of policies and procedures

Qualifications for registered nurse wound care

- Medical surgical, home health, or wound care experience preferred
- Baccalaureate degree (BSN) required
- Certification in Wound and Ostomy Care Nursing strongly preferred
- Current certification in wound care such as Certified Wound Specialist (CWS) or Wound Care Certified (WCC)