

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of regulatory reporting associate. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for regulatory reporting associate

- Work in partnership with the EMIR team to, implement and oversee a robust, globally consistent, effective Operating Model, Control Framework and Governance to aid lines of businesses across the globe in meeting key EMIR obligations
- Drive programs of work to address regulatory controls issues, reconciliation breaks and improve data quality across LOBs
- Proactive review of regulatory KRIs and metrics (in conjunction with the wider global team) to identify areas for deep dive review
- Preparation of daily reporting for review by London team
- Daily capital variance analysis, including validation of material movements and preparation of commentary
- Preparation and input of adjustments
- Preparation of offline calculations for review by London team
- Perform detailed analysis on product features, data captured in system and able to draft detailed business requirements for technology automation purposes
- Act as subject matter expert of reporting requirements and able to provide training to impacted parties
- Provide test cases, participate in system User acceptance testing, review test results and able to determine testing objectives are met

- Business Analyst / Design skills
- Manage small scale projects from inception through completion with little guidance
- Prefer at least 1-2 years of solid Business Analysis experience, including leading global projects and understanding the development lifestyle
- Vice President roles will require 5 years of experience within the Financial Services industry
- Associate and Analyst roles do not require experience within the Financial Services industry
- Demonstrated expertise in business process reengineering (workflow implementations is a plus.)