Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a reporting analyst senior. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for reporting analyst senior

- Assists with the maintenance of the monthly regulatory calendars to meet compliance objectives
- Assists with the preparation of periodic STAT financial reporting for consolidated life insurance companies, and helps summarize the significant items worthy of note related to period
- Assists with preparation of the consolidated, statutory financial reports for the Company
- Assists with the maintenance of the books and records to support STAT accounts of the legal entities
- Provides documentation and analysis that supports the needs of the Assistant Controller
- Assists with the preparation of the quarterly and annual consolidated statutory statements and MD&A disclosures
- Assists with providing support and analysis for use by outside auditors and regulators
- Assists with the maintenance of the books and records to support the accounts of the non-life legal entities
- Assists in providing inputs for annual STAT plan relating to Life entities
- Assists in calculations of RBC levels and in explaining significant variances for the consolidated entity

Qualifications for reporting analyst senior

- Possess confidence to work with all levels of finance and operational staff within division and across other departments
- CPA designation or tracking
- Minimum of 3-5 years of accounting experience (Public accounting experience preferred but not required)
- SAP and WebFilings experience
- High skill level in Microsoft Office products