

Example of Reporting Senior Analyst Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of reporting senior analyst. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for reporting senior analyst

- Derivatives accounting / disclosures
- Assist in special projects including technical accounting research
- Update and develop accounting policies and procedures
- Develops, prepares and reviews recurring reports and analytics for the accounting and finance organizations for both external and management reporting purposes
- Assists in determining STAT accounting consequences for proposed and/or completed actions of the segments and legal entities
- Remains current on accounting rules and financial reporting developments
- Develop, maintain, and monitor worldwide compliance with accounting-related policies and procedures
- SOX processes & audit requests
- Represents the Financial Systems department in UHS cross-department projects and meetings
- Provides audit level reports, guidance and assistance as requested from internal and external audit and finance groups

Qualifications for reporting senior analyst

- HFM preferred
- Monthly reconciliation of cash balance sheet accounts
- Minimum 3-5 years of work experience required, preferably in private equity

- Provide first line of review of all Opco Capital expenditure submissions, reviewing the business case, compliance with WB capex reporting guidelines
- As a senior reporting analyst, you will create, produce, and analyze business reports for various end users in the bank