

Example of Research RN Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of research RN. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for research RN

- Organizational management of all aspects of the clinical trial, including but not limited to, timeliness in completing case report forms, data entry, reporting adverse drug experiences, managing caseload and managing patient/data study file
- Using established criteria and structured assessments, perform proactive telephone outreach and comprehensive screening of frail patients for palliative care needs and link patients to appropriate KP and non-KP services and programs to address unmet medical and non-medical social needs
- Using established criteria, screen incoming referrals for patient appropriateness for home-based palliative care (HBPC) and triage patients who do not qualify for HBPC to other appropriate services and programs
- Undergo training as a Life Care Planning instructor in order to train and mentor clinicians on advance care planning conversations (Last Steps)
- Undergo other advanced training in palliative care practice as needed to serve as a resource and mentor to other palliative care clinicians
- Other assigned responsibilities from the research project manager to meet study deliverables and milestones
- Function under the supervision of the Clinical Research Manager, to assist in leading the cardiovascular service line in implementing and developing clinical trial process and procedures to expand clinical trial access to patients across the region
- Be responsible for supervision of clinical research coordinators supporting the cardiovascular service line and coordinating and maintaining diverse activities

- Ensures the protection of study patients by timely adherence to protocol requirements/compliance
- Uses the protocol as the only tool to screen, treat, and follow patients

Qualifications for research RN

- Knowledge of clinical research and Good Clinical Practice (GCP)
- Experience with working in databases preferred
- Experience working in a community oncology physician practice is a plus
- Must have a minimum of an Associate's Degree in Nursing, with a Bachelor's Degree in an allied health field
- The NRC will report annually proof of active nursing license, active CPR certification, and proof of continuing education fulfillment as required by the Ohio Board of Nursing and required for maintaining any certifications held
- Licensure and competencies for nursing practice in the state of Ohio must be current and without restrictions