

Example of Resident Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a resident manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for resident manager

- Following company and approval guidelines, purchase all inventory and supplies to perform maintenance and repairs
- Adhere to and follow the Emergency Procedure Manual
- Maintain and clean work/utility rooms
- Retrieve packages for the Residents from the Receiving Office after normal Receiving Hours or if the Receiving Clerk is busy assisting others
- At the beginning and end of each shift, check the Fire Alarm Panel, ensuring that it is fully operational
- This position requires being properly relieved before the end of the shift
- Manage Engineering team on product related issues
- Coordinate production evaluation runs (PERs) and change notice (CN) implementation for product/process improvements
- Manage system that tracks non-conformance problems
- Ensure plant conformance to applicable process standards to support Manufacturing Engineering process audit

Qualifications for resident manager

- Must possess a valid driver's license and be willing to travel to locations around the state
- Must have minimum of seven (7) years' experience in substation projects, 5 years of which as project management and construction supervision
- Must have a minimum experience of working on three (3) similar nature of

- Perform field contract administration duties of the terms and conditions of the project contract
- Responsible for maintaining an Contractor's Application for Payment file and reviewing the pay request for conformance to the Contract requirements