

Example of Resident Pharmacist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a resident pharmacist. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for resident pharmacist

- Clinical Activities (Cont) Pipeline monitoring and evaluation
- Demonstrates a thorough knowledge of the hospital medication distribution system and is able to provide assistance to system users
- Able to function independently and without supervision
- At a minimum, processes work at a rate that meets the needs of the department, the patients, and the institution
- Demonstrates knowledge of all relevant departmental, organizational, and federal laws, policies, and procedures
- Performs tasks at a level of accuracy consistent with department expectations
- Demonstrates the ability to access patient information via system network
- Trains in the storage, handling, and disposal of hazardous drugs in accordance with standards set by regulatory agencies
- Ensures that the needed stock is obtained in an emergency
- Directs the work of pharmacy technicians to ensure adequate staffing exists

Qualifications for resident pharmacist

- California Board of Pharmacy licensure as a Pharmacist either prior to or as soon as possible after employment
- Requires knowledge of sterile products techniques
- Requires knowledge and experience with personal computers
- Graduate of a Doctor of Pharmacy degree program
- Good communication skills, ability to work with staff members

