

Example of Respiratory Therapy Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of respiratory therapy. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for respiratory therapy

- Collaborates with any/all disciplines necessary to improve a process or care
- Implements an ongoing process to measure, assess and improve business and service outcomes based on standards of care, patient safety concepts, industry research findings and applicable benchmarks
- Responsible for the monitoring, measurement of and analysis of indicator and/or results
- Incorporate benchmark guideposts for continual evaluation of alternative methods of conducting business operations and/or care delivery
- Develop and monitor and evaluate department Key Performance Indicators (KPI's) reflecting the relationship with System/Hospital KPI's
- Include department staff in shared KPI goal setting, strategy development and outcome analysis
- Assign responsibility as indicated for corrective action in order to implement measures to improve operations and outcomes
- Initiates required actions to improve results with immediate attention as deemed appropriate and urgent for patient, department and hospital needs
- Actively identifies problem performance areas to affect individual employee change through coaching, corrective actions or discipline or uses C.I
- Effectively deals with employees not meeting department minimal standards of care

Qualifications for respiratory therapy

- Must be licensed by the State of Missouri as a respiratory care practitioner

- Must be able to stand for long periods of time and walk great distances during work shift
- Graduate of AMA approved Respiratory Therapy training program
- Registered (RRT) by the National Board of Respiratory Care
- 2 years of experience in professional or technical role/function