

Example of RN Charge Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of RN charge. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for RN charge

- Directs and assists with resident, family/significant other education
- Oversees and coordinates the daily operations of the unit, resolving issues as they occur based on experience and judgment
- Provides continuous supervision of staff RNs, LVNs, and CNAs on the unit in provision of patient care
- In conjunction with treating physicians, develops long and short-term goals consistent with treatment plans, standards of practice, and the plan of care, incorporating patient preference and discussing plan of care with patient
- Collaborates with staff, physicians and members of the healthcare team to coordinate and manage care among other disciplines and support staff
- Empathizes with patients and patient support systems, expresses compassion and understanding and demonstrates care which is appropriate for the age, and cultural, religious, gender identity, or ethnic background
- Supports the facility's ideology, mission, goals and objectives and contributes input into short- and long-term goals for the facility
- Interacts with others in a positive, respectful, and considerate manner and promotes effective communication between the clinical areas, business office, and physicians
- Promotes cost containment and efficient use of facility resources and assists in monitoring FTE utilization, making recommendations to promote cost-effective man-hour practices
- Oversees care of the PACU department and the equipment to ensure safety,

Qualifications for RN charge

- Maintains professional image during change or stressful situations
- Current ACLS must be obtained with 6 months of hire
- Bachelor's Degree of Nursing (BSN)
- Participate in learning opportunities to continue to grow in your
- Create a positive work life balance with a variety of
- Experience with personal computers preferred