

Example of RN, Practice Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of RN, practice. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for RN, practice

- Educates patient regarding medications, and other procedures
- Schedules and processes paperwork for patient tests, and other procedures, labs, or office appointments
- Master's or DNP degree in nursing
- Minimum of three years experience in Oncology nursing
- In conjunction with site providers and the Operations Director, determines staffing needs required
- Assists in communicating a shared vision within the Practice which motivates others to achieve operational goals and objectives
- Maintains an atmosphere that supports and encourages high performance, high levels of Caregiver engagement, teamwork, customer service and continuous improvement within the Practice
- Maintains a constant two-way flow of information to all key relationships and customers
- Empowers direct reports by delegating clear responsibility, accountability and authority to meet mutually agreed upon expectations
- In conjunction with the Operations Director and physicians, develops and monitors key performance indicators on a regular basis

Qualifications for RN, practice

- Understanding of quality improvement concepts and rapid cycle process improvement activities, especially as they pertain to access to care preferred
- Ability to demonstrate leadership skills, to delegate and provide

- Knowledge of medical terminology and clinical reference tools
- Manage VFC program
- Demonstrated expertise in a field of relevant to the work of the department