

Example of RN, Practice Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of RN, practice. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for RN, practice

- In conjunction with the Sparrow Quality Department and Operations Director, develops, implements and monitors quality assurance standards and Patient satisfaction for the site
- In cooperation with Practice Physicians, monitors site budget
- Ensures compliance with State, Federal and accreditation regulations in reference to patient care and the physical environment
- Responsible for ensuring a safe work environment that minimizes work related illness and injury
- Establishes policies, procedures and protocols necessary to accomplish daily tasks, processes and long range goals consistent with standards established by SMG
- Coordinates the development of educational materials and protocols for clinical practice, including providing counseling to patients and family members in relation to health and family matters, developmental needs and crises
- Demonstrate knowledge and ability to assess and provide appropriate interventions that are unique to the needs of the patient population (age and program specific) being served
- Coordinate treatment team meeting daily for assigned physician team
- Assist physician to coordinate patient plan of care, which includes rounding daily on patients, documenting findings and gathering pertinent clinical and UR information
- Communicate pertinent treatment and discharge plans to other team

Qualifications for RN, practice

- Must be able to travel between the Bryn Mawr and Newtown Square office locations
- Demonstrated understanding of quality improvement processes at both the unit and the network level
- DNP (preferred)
- 3 years' experience in pediatrics or specialty (preferred)
- Graduate of school of professional nursing of an accredited college
- Two years in clinical discipline preferred