

Example of RN Program Coordinator Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a RN program coordinator. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for RN program coordinator

- Facilitates compliance with safety and regulatory requirements for FMG clinics
- Determines and provides subsequent oversight of sepsis = annual performance measurement, improvement plans and Quality & Patient Safety Plans in collaboration with executive and clinical leadership
- Assess and identify participant's readiness, willingness and ability to change
- Develops interventions and sets goals for behavioral modification within the scope of nursing practice
- Monitor and document the patient's progress toward his or her optimal level of wellness
- Communicates, as needed, with service delivery partners, physicians and other health professionals to provide case coordination and develop a plan of care that facilitates the efficient use of health care resources
- Promote wellness and provide education regarding preventative care measures
- Acts as a liaison between physician practices, facilities and outside entities to resolve continuum of care issues related to patient care
- Proactively follows up with patients discharged from all hospitals, rehab facilities and emergency rooms to ensure patient has an appointment with their provider and reviews any unmet needs prior to the upcoming appointment
- Analyzes clinical data generated from MedVentive clinical performance reporting system and utilizes said data for tracking and care coordination purposes

-
- Program development experience (preferred)
 - Experience in the clinical care of orthopedic patients (preferred)
 - Masters in Nursing Degree Preferred
 - Minimum 5 years related experience in inpatient clinical setting
 - Licensed as a CA Registered Nurse
 - Bachelors or Master degree in nursing from an accredited school