

Example of RN-Radiology Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a rn-radiology. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for rn-radiology

- Assures that reportable events occurring within the department are properly reported to Risk Management within the time required by law
- Assists Risk Management Department in identifying risks, analyzing cause/effects of incidents and in the investigation of incidents as may be required for legal purposes
- Works with Risk Management Department in developing corrective action plans addressing trends or categories or risks/incidents
- Ensures compliance with core measure/HCAHPS composite benchmarks
- Documentation meets criteria for core measure, charges, PI, and all quality/regulatory standards as measured by chart audits
- Assists in completing, monitoring, and evaluation of unit-based Performance Improvement activities
- Promotes staff development through patient care assignments, acting as a clinical resource and role model, identifying educational needs and ensuring staff attendance at educational in-services
- Encourages and supports front-line decision making
- Provides staff in-services on a regular basis
- Minimum of three (3) to five (5) years' experience as a Registered Nurse

Qualifications for rn-radiology

- Must be able to push/pull wheeled chair conveyances, stretch and other equipment weighing up to 200 pounds
- In order to work effectively with patients, must have effective interpersonal

- Minimum of one year Registered Nurse experience in an acute care setting
- At least one (1) year recent clinical experience as an RN preferred
- Acute care experience in an Intermediate Care, ICU or ED setting preferred
- Interventional Radiology experience preferred