

Example of RN-Radiology Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of rn-radiology. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for rn-radiology

- Under the general direction of the Director or the Nurse Manager, the Charge RN coordinates patient care and staffing needs for assigned shift
- Circulating during Radiology procedures and assisting the patient and/or physician whenever necessary
- Maintains an inventory of contrast media and patient related supplies
- Performs routine office duties such as answering telephones, check on previous reports, images, , whenever necessary
- Orientation of nursing personnel to the Radiology department
- Will be required to be on-call or work overtime and/or evenings, nights, weekends or holidays for emergency procedures and/or situations that arise in the department to help maintain adequate coverage of the Department
- CT guided biopsies such as
- Must be available to work 2 shifts (12 hour shifts) every weekend
- Full-time medical benefits eligible position, with Paid Time Off accrual
- Maintains workrooms, equipment and accessories

Qualifications for rn-radiology

- Two years in an acute care setting preferred
- Prefer at least one year of critical care nursing experience
- At least two years of experience in Pediatrics
- Must have the ability to handle critical care situations with a high level of stress

