

Example of Room Technician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a room technician. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for room technician

- Assist in disassembling all equipment after production has ended each day
- Assisting in other meat department positions when necessary
- Responsible for communicating with medical, nursing and nutrition team for clarification and prioritization of formula orders
- Sanitizes work area and utilizes dishwasher for sterilization of mixing equipment
- Arranges stockrooms for ease of product visibility and according to inspection standards (Food Safety & Sanitation, EOC)
- Initiates and maintains all productivity logs (formula inventory, orders)
- Checks expiration dates for formula stock in nursing units, storage rooms and formula mixing room
- Maintains and monitors overnight kit to ensure continuum of formula provision for newly admitted or new overnight orders
- Measures/weights formula ingredients using a gram scale for powder products and a graduated cylinder, beaker or sterile syringe for liquid products
- Utilizes the standard recipe charts for preparation of special mixed formulas or uses the recipe provided in the comments section of the order

Qualifications for room technician

- Or High School/AA with at least 3 years experience in a GMP environment
- Or completion of one year of nursing school within the last two years is

- A minimum of one (1) year experience working in a meat facility, food processing plant, or similar warehouse experience
- Ability to move freely in and around obstacles common in the meat production room
- Cold working conditions - Ability to withstand prolonged work assignments in temperatures as low as 34 degrees Fahrenheit
- Repetitive Action - Packing meat patties, stacking, feeding, labeling, rotating, inspecting, cleaning tools and equipment, keeping meat department organized and clean