Our company is looking for a safety & occupational health. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for safety & occupational health

- Audit compliance in all EHSQ elements, and to support sites in generic EHSQ questions
- Liaise with and influence for relevant internal/external stakeholders and advocate EHSQ mindset across the organization
- Incident reports vs
- Leads the ISO 45001 program to ensure best in class occupational health and safety management system requirements are established, implemented, and maintained in accordance with the ISO 45001 standard
- Develops implements and monitors safety and environmental plans, including development of written programs
- Leads the ISO 14001 program to ensure environmental management system requirements are established, implemented, and maintained in accordance with the ISO 14001 standard
- Oversees and provides direction to the corporate safety and workers' compensation program
- The primary purpose of this position is to serve as the safety specialist responsible for medical treatment facility safety program characterized by complex equipment, and facilities, with complicated internal and external regulatory requirements
- Plans, directs, coordinates, supervises, and evaluates activities necessary to the overall management of the Medical Group safety program
- Develops and provides technical safety/training instruction to supervisors, employees, and/or unit safety representatives on a wide range of work hazardous materials, common laboratory hazards, and building evacuation procedures

Qualifications for safety & occupational health

- Must currently be pursuing a graduate degree in Industrial Hygiene, Occupational Health and Safety, Environmental Health Science, Environmental Studies, or a related field at an accredited institution with a graduation date of May/June 2017 or later
- Must have and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.00/4.00 or higher as determined by your current academic institution
- Experience in Occupational Health and Safety preferred
- Proficiency in Microsoft Access, Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- Demonstrated experience analyzing information, identifying client needs, developing action plans, and presenting recommendations
- Demonstrated ability to take initiative and accountability for results, with creative and strategic problem-solving skills