Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of SAP ABAP developer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for SAP ABAP developer

- To stay abreast with the latest technological advancement and changes in the world of SAP development and adapting to these changes by self-training and research work
- Ownership and technical progression of assorted Service Requests and Incident tickets, including the investigation and resolution of production fails
- Ability to work on more than one issue at a time
- Providing input to the establishment/improvement of best practices within SAP Development Team
- Participation on SAP implementation/development projects
- SAP support (2nd/3rd level) with expected interaction with client
- Later on expected participation on SAP presales activities and solutioning
- Customize and support the implementation of SAP HCM (Benefits (BN), Success Factors Learning Solution (LS), Organizational Management Forms (OM), Personal Administration (PA), Success Factors Performance and Goals (PG), Time Management (PT), Payroll (PY))
- Develops quality code and its associated documentation adhering to team and departmental development standards
- Participates in planning and executing implementations

Qualifications for SAP ABAP developer

- Full project life cycle SAP implementation including blueprinting, configuration, testing, training and post implementation support

- Fluent English in German or English
- Education in BS/MS Computer Science, Communications, Information Technology or related discipline
- Customer-centric and Service minded – ability to interact with all levels of users (end-users/executives)