Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a SAP basis consultant. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for SAP basis consultant

- Experience with Maintenance Optimizer from SAP
- Act as the technical consultant for Finance projects
- Provide SAP Basis functionality support and guidance to the NAFTA business user community and cbFC support teams
- Perform configuration, modification, and integration tasks in support of SAP enhancements and implementations
- Develop, maintain, and publish functional/technical standards for the support and maintenance of SAP as needed and any tools used in accomplishing these goals
- Ensure the adherence to Daimler AG security and governance standards
- Candidate will be involved in the project to upgrade SAP Solution Manager from 7.1 to 7.2 SP06
- Lead configuration, functional setup, and design of the Charm/QGM processes
- Work closely with internal stakeholders to test and validate solution is configured to meet company needs
- Knowledge transfer of configuration and setup to appropriate H-D personnel

Qualifications for SAP basis consultant

- Experience in ALE, workflow, various interfacing methods, IDOC, Partner profile and Distribution Model
- Knowledge of AIX operating system including scripting, crons, file systems

- Provide day to day production support for SAP applications including projects
- Experience in full life cycle, development, test, pre-production, production and staging SAP systems
- MQ/MQ Broker, DB2 and some basic MVS knowledge