

Example of SAP Security Analyst Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of SAP security analyst. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for SAP security analyst

- Actively participate in on-going strategic and tactical programs to ensure the solution is compliant with internal and external requirements from S&A perspective
- Provide periodic progress feedback to Security Engineering Manager on S&A Activities, Risks and Issues
- Should have strong knowledge on SAP security
- Should have working & testing knowledge of SAP security
- Investigate user reported access incidents to determine root cause and recommend solution
- Collaborate with application management services provider to troubleshoot support authorization issues
- Work with business leads to define and implement user access within the SAP environment
- Perform technical analysis and identifies areas of potential process improvement
- Facilitates document requests and information gathering for audit activities
- Team Lead for Gurgaon based resources, currently on further team member

Qualifications for SAP security analyst

- This is full-time employment role – not a consultant and must be located onsite at the Reading or Latrobe office

- 4-year degree preferred (management information systems or equivalent)
- Competent in project management theory, knowledge, skills, tools and techniques
- Awareness of SAP security concepts
- Consultative capability