

Example of Security Compliance Specialist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a security compliance specialist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for security compliance specialist

- Interfaces with different technology teams business units to share the security strategy to achieve higher levels of enterprise security through information sharing and cooperation
- Interfaces with cross-functional teams (technology, business units, Compliance, Legal, Risk,) to share the security strategy to achieve higher levels of enterprise security through information sharing and cooperation
- Updating the central ASCA tracker which includes all applications in scope
- Work with a variety of cross-functional teams to ensure compliance with laws, regulations and policies
- Understanding of Windows and Linus environments, preferably within a large distributed business
- Ability to conduct evidence collection using network and physical collection protocols, experience in infrastructure log analysis and correlation and ability to explain complex technical concepts to a non-technical audience will see you secure this rewarding role
- Execute Information Assurance Vulnerability Management (IAVM) programs
- Key member of project team responsible for performing cyber security assessments to support client cyber security programs
- Validate hardware configuration and software configurations via physical or logical walk-downs
- Document findings in accordance with client procedures

- Formal training and/or experience in risk management and computer system validation space highly desired
- Experience in development and/or support of large-scale computer systems in the Pharmaceutical or Healthcare industry
- Specific experience in a regulated environment with mastery knowledge of the core principles and practices of Regulatory Compliance (SOX, GxP, 21 CFR part 11, Infrastructure qualification, application validation)
- Thorough understanding of computer infrastructure and operations, including cloud based solutions
- Ability to work independently, manages multiple priorities, and work in an unstructured environment
- Strategic thinking, leadership and relationship management with a demonstrated ability to operate at senior/executive levels of a large international corporation