Our growing company is looking to fill the role of security manager senior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for security manager senior

- Developing best practice technical security requirements that applied reduce risk based on expert knowledge in technology and security controls
- Providing technical assessment of control application in IT, provide control implementation guidance, provide technical risk review of new product and influence corporate leaders to address compliance remediation through common control implementation
- Responsible for managing and developing a team of employees including hiring, training, development, performance management, administration, and workforce planning
- Provision of the Program, Project and Construction Management support to a major aviation program in the UAE
- Lead the delivery of aviation security work
- Cooperation with external stakeholders to develop and deliver the required infrastructure and systems under budget and on time
- Responsible for integrated planning and delivery for all airport facility, aviation and utility systems
- Coordination of systems design, construction and commissioning activities to ensure effective and uniform systems integration and operation
- Oversight of design, engineering and implementation of security access control systems, CCTV and other aviation related security systems required Program wide
- Engage with the VP IT Operations to develop budget projections based on short- and long-term goals and objectives

- Supplemental computer knowledge (Access, MS Projects)
- Contribute to technical documentation via whitepapers, blogs, guides, reference architectures
- Bachelor's Degree, including coursework in computer science, technology and business
- 8+ years of experience in technical project management in IT security
- Certifications in PMP, CISA, or CISSP are a plus
- Experience with PCI DSS, SOC1/SOC2, NIST CSF and working with external audit firms