

Example of Security Operations Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is hiring for a security operations manager. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for security operations manager

- Driving development of the threat hunting and analysis program
- Develops business specific security plans, which incorporate corporate security guidance and integrate security strategy into the business
- Monitors intelligence sources and security threats to business operations
- Collects and maintains security incident data for trend analysis and recommends corrective action Lessons Learned
- Leads realistic drills and exercises to gauge effectiveness of security programs
- Serves as an integral member of the Corporate Security Team
- Manages overall security operations and investigative functions of hotel/casino complex including company assets, casino floor and customers and team member security and safety
- Continuously evaluates staffing levels in accordance with business demand, forecasts, and budgetary guidelines
- Plans, develops and directs staffing, supervision, training and equitable treatment of all security Team Members
- Responsible for ensuring accuracy, thoroughness and completion of all investigations

Qualifications for security operations manager

- Extensive operational experience in Cyber Security, Information Technology or relevant business area

- Information security professional certificates (OSCP, CISM, CISSP)
- Information security professional certifications encouraged (SANS GIAC, CISSP)
- 5 years of relevant job experience managing multi-facility physical security operations
- Bachelor's and above degree in Computer Science, MIS, Engineering, Math, or Business