Our company is hiring for a security systems technician. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for security systems technician

- Under supervision of a security installation supervisor, performs a wide variety of activities associated with installing, maintaining, servicing, and testing electrical/ electronic/ mechanical equipment
- Performs complex equipment installation
- Creates connections to various sensors and electrically powered devices
- Works with engineering group to create and/or verify point database
- Verifies point database and programming operations are consistent with scope of work for the intended integration and sequence
- Sets up and configures PC workstations, user interfaces
- Schedules with trade contractors to coordinate startup services as needed
- Runs reports to analyze system operation, works with customer to demonstrate system operation and verify consistency with the contracted scope of work (IE Commissioning Agents or test and balance contractors, others)
- Configure and maintain personal computer hardware including PC's, notebooks, printers
- Review shop drawings and obtain all facts necessary to perform installation activities per specifications and timetable

Qualifications for security systems technician

- Strong functional knowledge of electricity and electronics
- Proficiency in the use of business application software

- Alarm Installer Course from recognized institute of technology preferred
- TQ certified preferred
- A current certification in Software House (C-Cure 9000), Genetech Security Center, Lenel OnGuard, Avigilon, OnSSI, Bosch, and/or DSC