

Example of Security Systems Technician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of security systems technician. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for security systems technician

- Provides support to internal customers worldwide
- Coordinates service requests and maintenance with system vendors, ensure prompt action is taken, and follows up on all pending issues
- May also be assigned additional duties as part of the overall security team
- Performs startup activities, programming, preventative maintenance and diagnostics on security system components according to project scope or service agreement contract
- Participates in job site final walk and / or final completion for systems to service turnover on assigned jobs Conducts training and development classes for customers on site or at the branch
- Performs preventative maintenance and diagnostics on security system and components according to service agreement contracts
- May coordinate electrical installation with electrical contractor at job site as required
- Effectively service panels all makes and models
- Carry out hazard and risk assessments (JSA) for all tasks as per company policy and procedures
- Mechanical assembly of sub-components to create a high technology, digital image security device

- Nevada
- Utah
- Illinois
- Works closely with the Project Manager and/or supervisor and assists in the overall coordination of specific projects
- Certifications related to any of the following (or similar) products would be beneficial
- Experience with Hirsch/Identiv product lines, certification a plus