Our growing company is hiring for a senior environment. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for senior environment

- Manages the EHS departmental staff, budget, resources, goals, and priorities to ensure compliance with all local and Federal EHS laws and regulations
- Participates in factory redesign for job safety analysis through FMEA and fishbone analysis
- Records and reports workplace incidents/injuries to establish Workers' Compensation claims
- Manages the company's Business Continuity Plan in order to maintain operations in an emergency situation
- Promotes proactive and preventative environmental, health and safety activities and a organizational safety cultures by observing, analyzing, and encouraging safe work behaviors and correcting unsafe conditions
- Writes, edits, and maintains written EHS programs consistent with applicable legal requirements and corporate policy
- Partners with site management, Human Resources, and external regulatory agencies regarding EMS and EHS situations when needed
- Month-end close processing including journal entries, reconciliations
- Financial statement review in addition to related reporting
- Perform related tax schedules and reporting

Qualifications for senior environment

- Eclipse RCP Developer
- Working within a structured project framework

- Able to learn and understand current business processes and help to model new processes/procedures
- Must exhibit good artistic skill and the ability to adapt to different artistic styles
- Must be autonomous while working on set tasks from the schedule