

Example of Senior Environment Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a senior environment. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for senior environment

- Financial reporting including budget preparation
- Ad hoc projects and general financial support of accounting team
- Respond to, help investigate and document all work-related injuries/illnesses
- Assist in the identification of training needs and develop and deliver EHS training as appropriate
- Document and report findings and oversee implementation and tracking of corrective actions
- Manage the storage and disposal of hazardous waste
- Assist in the development and maintenance of emergency response plans and procedures
- As the regional lead for both ISO 14001 and ISO 50001, this role is ultimately responsible for planning, documentation and action control for all regional topics
- Conduct internal audits across EMEA sites
- Follow up on all non-conformances in EMEA

Qualifications for senior environment

- Experience overseeing Facilities and Workplace programs in a corporate environment of 1000+ employees
- 7-10 years of experience with Facilities Management and record of implementing best practices within the team
- 5+ years of experience managing complex teams and projects and

- Proven success with developing relationships with internal departments and senior leaders, building management, vendors, and landlords
- Comfort with both keeping the lights on and also planning for the future as our business grows
- Ability to manage and prioritize executive feedback and respond with flexibility and creativity in presenting ideas and options