Our growing company is looking to fill the role of senior / lead software engineer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for senior / lead software engineer

- Partner with Software Engineers, UX/UI, Quality Engineers, Product Owners/Analysts to deliver high performing quality customer experiences that are engaging, purposeful and powerful in their simplicity
- Influence and collaborate with other senior members of the team to establish platform direction
- Provide overarching leadership and direction for delivery of major components
- Ensure SME level knowledge of the platform, our internal frameworks and products
- Mentor all levels of the team
- Encourage and lift up those around you
- This project is being jointly developed with the help of several internal and external software development groups within the US and abroad
- Provide technical and architectural leadership for the Infrastructure Delivery Engineering teams and Operations roles
- Automate the deployment and instance migration process
- Create, maintain and share technical documentation used by other team members

Qualifications for senior / lead software engineer

- A Point Guard - you are willing to distribute the ball, assist others, initiate the

- 10 or more years' experience in full stack development (front end web clients and back end services/APIs) utilizing JavaScript, AngularJS, Java, and Spring Tool Suite
- Familiarity with Financial Services and Banking concepts
- At least 7 years coding experience
- At least 3 years leading/overseeing/influencing development activity of multiple developers among and beyond team