Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a senior pharmacy technician. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for senior pharmacy technician

- Be responsible for all inventory management related job functions
- Assist during the Annual Capital Inventory
- Troubleshoot any issues with the Main Pharmacy Perpetual Inventory System
- Assist the pharmacist with the practice of pharmacy in accordance with federal, state, and local regulations,HIPAA guidelines, corporate/departmental policies and procedures by accurately interpreting healthcare provider's prescription orders, entering into the core pharmacy system
- Actively participates in the professional growth and development of new employees, students, and Resident (s)
- Assist in training other Pharmacy Technicians in determining their ability to function in ALL areas of the Pharmacy department
- Demonstrate competency in performing high skill level activities in multiple areas such as sterile products/IV admixtures, controlled substances, robot operation, packaging operations, and operating room
- Perform and document regular cleaning and maintenance activities of ALL areas
- Provide direction and leadership for ALL technical aspects associated with medication preparation in the pharmacy department
- Consistently has the ability to work and instruct in the Sterile Product area preparing cytotoxic and hazardous drugs

- Pharmacy Technician per state guidelines
- Completion of a Pharmacy Technician Certification Program with externship
- Current PTCB, NCCT or ExCPT Certificate
- PBM, managed care, hospital pharmacy, LTC pharmacy, home infusion pharmacy, and/or retail pharmacy experience preferred
- Completion of high school diploma or equivalent or Completion of an accredited pharmacy technician program is required
- Three years of previous pharmacy technician experience is required