Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a senior software architect. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for senior software architect

- Champions the use of Six Sigma tools to reduce costs and improve processes
- Coordinates application suppliers' support groups along with in-house support to fix software bugs and escalated issues
- Interfaces with technical and in-house customer support staff to determine nature of non-routine and moderately complex problems and issues
- Leads regular project status reviews
- Implements remedial fixes and procedures for end users
- Complies with all applicable product development processes
- Anticipate business needs and technology trends and articulate the roadmap for the FTB-ECOSystem
- Build and maintain the architecture roadmap for the FTB-ECOSysytem
- Define the interface (API) with components within the ECOSystem and rules to ensure the integrity of the ECOSystem
- Work closely with other R&D Software Architects in product areas linked to the FTB-ECOSystem to align product architecture roadmaps

Qualifications for senior software architect

- Industrial communication protocols OPC, Modbus
- Continues integration solutions with eg
- 4 years experience using Unix-like operating systems
- 2 years experience using cloud technologies
- 2 years experience leading software development teams using Agile

- Ability to develop new and innovative applications debug and refactor existing code