Our growing company is looking to fill the role of senior solution architect. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for senior solution architect

- Use knowledge of current research and technology applicable to research, development, and engineering support and services with the technical fields of Systems Engineering, Network Protocols, Network Architectures and associated standards
- Be the hands on Solution Architect across all applications in the Legal suite – operating new builds, improvements, resolving recurring issues
- Identifies areas of process improvement that drive profit enhancement and client value and instill that mindset while contributing through others
- Familiar with SSL/TLS protocols, key exchange (public and private), digital signatures, cryptographic algorithms and certificate authorities
- Familiar with XML, XML Style Sheet Language Transformation (XSLT), Web Services Definition Language (WSDL) and XML Schema Definition (XSD)
- Familiar with SOAP and REST Web Services
- Diagnose Performance/Connectivity problems and errors
- Demonstrated technical and analytical skills, including the ability to understand and communicate complex technical information
- Designing effective architectural solutions to business problems
- Coordinating design activity across technical and functional subject matter experts

Qualifications for senior solution architect

- Provide background information on all matters, opinion and the effect of

- 10 years of experience in leading solution design for Supply Chain execution systems such as Warehouse Management System (WMS), Transportation Management System and integrated systems
- Mastery of iOS and Android development
- Has handled design and implementation of virtualization in Enterprise IT environment
- Applicants must have consultancy and Investment Banking experience
- Analysing, designing and deploying low latency business critical applications