Our company is looking to fill the role of senior solution architect. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for senior solution architect

- Translate business requirements into sound technical solutions
- Create documentation including architectural drawings, Powerpoint presentations and textual documents
- Vendor analysis and market and technologies studies (ITSM)
- Engaged with chief architects, Offering Solution Architects and Regional ITSM SME's on all custom service management solutions
- Responsible for gathering requirements and generating solution-focused product requirements for end to end IOT solution
- Responsible for gathering requirements and transferring those requirements into design's and RA's to generate end to end IOT solutions
- Co-Author RA's and Whitepaper on IOT solutions and serve as a thought leader within the team
- Mentor technical resources, run solution reviews, and oversee implementation quality to improve engineering practices
- Serve as the focal for all customer and partner implementations
- Work with Enterprise Business Architects and Specialist IT Architects to provide Architecture Consultancy to a Director of Transformation

Qualifications for senior solution architect

- Financial services writing expertise with ability to create and manage complex copy documentation
- 2-4 years of experience in a technical leadership role on small to medium size

- 5+ Years Minimum hands on experience Designing and Deploying complex Data Center and Virtualization Solutions
- VMWare, Hyper-V, or Citrix Xen Virtualization proficiency (Certification desirable, such as VTSP and VCP)
- NetApp, EMC, HPE 3PAR, or Pure storage proficiency (Certification desirable)