Our company is looking to fill the role of senior systems integration. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for senior systems integration

- Assesses compliance of the work with Employer requirements and applicable standards/codes and raises awareness on potential deviations
- Provides regular reports on progress to the CWJV Engineering Managers and Engineering Director and escalates issues in a timely manner
- Presents the status on key issues to the Client's representative and drives actions to closure
- Within the scope of the role, assist in reviews and ensure compliance with all relevant engineering project plans
- During the construction phase help to coordinate changes coming from the field and ensure analysis is conducted to assess impact of changes (schedule, re-design, impact on maintainability)
- Working directly with customers to determine system needs
- Develop proof of concept systems to demonstrate capabilities to customers
- Perform system testing to determine existing and new system performance
- Work with interdisciplinary teams to take concepts and move toward production solutions
- Provide system technical leadership to other engineers

Qualifications for senior systems integration

- Must satisfactorily complete the appropriate training and obtain the required

8570.01-M Information Assurance Workforce Improvement Program, dated 19 December 2005 (incorporating Change 1, 15 May 2008)

- Ability to maintain a Single Scope Background Investigation (SSBI) with Secret/Top Secret/Sensitive Compartmentalized Information (TS/SCI) clearance eligibility
- May/Will require extended work hours based on operational or mission requirements
- Must successfully complete locally identified recurring Information Assurance and annual training
- Expert RedHat Linux and OpenStack
- Language - Fluent in German & English