Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of senior systems integration. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for senior systems integration

- Lead Quality Assurance and acceptance testing of assigned projects
- Provide support after normal business hours as needed
- Develop and Support various Integration points between Order Management and Manufacturing
- Develop and Support various Mill Operating Systems especially Dispatch, Shipping, and Traffic Applications
- Adapt a clear understanding of current business process and help incorporate IT solutions accordingly
- Responsible for translating high-level business requirements into detailed functional specifications and managing requests for changes to the systems specifications
- Extensive Data Research, development in assigned technology, help determine business requirements, propose changes, develop migration and implementation plans, and may execute projects based on these activities
- Complete tasks, reporting status and work assignments in a timely fashion
- Troubleshoot the system as an expert to identify any possible faults or potential issues
- Oversees the implementation of quality processes in all IT development projects

Qualifications for senior systems integration

- Listen and provide effective feedback channels to modify system or services when necessary based on property and area team input
- Technical skills to modify systems and services to accommodate each country and hotel requirements
- Analytical skills to determine an economic model to outsource services
- Effectively influence owners and operations finance to support the system and shared services
- Partner with various stakeholders
- Develop training necessary to ensure effective change management for the new system and services