

Example of Senior Systems Integration Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of senior systems integration. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for senior systems integration

- Functions as a business resource working closely with the product manager
- May coordinate IT planning activities with IT and business
- Develop detailed requirements to include all user stories and acceptance criteria
- Manages the compliance reporting system
- Incorporates industry Quality Assurance (QA) testing standards and tools into the Carlson Companies environment
- Implements quality processes in support of the development and production change management process
- Writes and executes test plans to validate functionality and data integrity of applications and system changes
- Manages a full-loop process for recording test discrepancies and communicating those findings back to the appropriate sources
- Participate in reviews of new business requirements, planning, estimation and quality risk analysis
- Participate in sprint planning activities, daily stand-up meetings

Qualifications for senior systems integration

- Exhibits leadership presence
- Ability to communicate important finance information effectively with non-finance managers

- Ability to develop and maintain effective relationships with both internal and external customers
- High degree of initiative and ability to work effectively in teams or independently
- Experience driving change and rolling out change initiatives within the organization