Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a senior technical analyst. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for senior technical analyst

- Leads walkthrough reviews of specifications and technical designs
- Proactively maintain supported server based computing systems to ensure maximum availability
- Monitor change implementations, ensuring that any technical or operational problems, work flow issues, or service improvement issues are addressed and communicated to manager
- Work on automation for repetitive tasks using PowerShell
- Be the Technical Lead on employee research projects
- Oversee or be involved in the development of online surveys to collect data
- Acts as facility lead on technical project implementations
- Aids and trains users on proper use of division and/or facility technology
- Mentors and trains Division Technical Analysts
- Participates in facility-based IT project planning, as needed

Qualifications for senior technical analyst

- Competency in Microsoft Visual Studio, Web Application design, and implementation using ASP.NET 3.0/4.0 and C#, WCF Web services, and SQL Database connectivity
- Computer Science Degree or related Diploma
- Knowledge and experience with Derivatives applications (like Interest Rate, Equity, and Credit Derivatives) will be an asset
- Workday certifications are a plus

- Experience with at least one major full life cycle global ERP/SaaS implementation in a senior analyst capacity