Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of siebel. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for siebel

- Recommending and documenting functional and technical solutions by conducting gap analysis between standard functionality and business needs
- Managing functional and technical effort for the bug fixes and enhancements
- Coordinating integration and user acceptance testing
- Ability to conduct end-user training
- Work with the IT technical team to resolve bug fixes and enhancements as needed
- Delivers services remotely from Zagreb on client site
- Drive continuous improvements through automation, increasing team productivity, standardization, optimizations, root cause analysis
- Facilitates all Siebel related Change Management at a local level
- Creates smartscripts, process assessments and other efficiency tools within Siebel and makes recommendations regarding verbiage, flow, to enhance efficiencies
- Uncover and track system errors and work alongside the Siebel Team to resolve the issues

Qualifications for siebel

- Should be able to analyze ETL logic from Informatica and suggest Improvements on batch architecture
- Good understanding of performance tuning on Oracle database and suggest improvements

- Be adaptable to variety of roles like development, occasional weekend / extended hours support as situation demands
- Experience handling user Issues with data and providing effective solutions for resolution
- Good understanding of Siebel architecture and server component parameters