Our growing company is looking to fill the role of software developer, junior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for software developer, junior

- Work with the quality assurance and system test team to quickly resolve issues
- Software development of backend products in .NET and Windows
- Get to know the project development environment specifics
- Perform unit testing according to test specifications
- Able to setup test environment and adapt it over the different projects to be compatible with the unit test tool used
- Run tests on target/host system
- Investigate test failures and provide appropriate resolutions if needed
- Work closely with responsible developers
- Work with offshore and onshore development teams to understand, develop and continuously improve platform designs
- Take responsibility for the quality of your code / integration work delivered

Qualifications for software developer, junior

- Knowledge of relational databases including SQL Server, MS Access, Oracle and open source tool sets
- Agile Methodologies (eg
- Ability to work in a collaborative software development environment
- Must be self-motivated and takes ownership of work from start to end with minimal direct supervision

- Some experience with widely used frameworks such as Knockout, jQuery, Bootstrap, Angular