Our company is looking for a software developer / programmer. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for software developer / programmer

- Design work and programming to create a new Web application
- Improving and integrating existing programs into the new software system
- Designing and creating new API offerings from the ground up
- Leading the Center's research assistant and student workers in relational database frame design and the uploading of content, including images, videos, user information, lectures
- Developing systems to be scalable, secure, and feasible to maintain
- Work with the DMO scheduling working group to consult on levels of effort, methods, and new capability feasibility assessments
- Create, test, and implement new software capabilities IAW industry and government standards
- Design and update software database
- Per government direction, work with other software agencies with related capabilities to incorporate "hooks" for interoperability
- Clearly and regularly communicate with management and technical support colleagues

Qualifications for software developer / programmer

- Writing SQL queries and stored procedures
- Must have knowledge of web and application servers such as Apache, IIS,

- Knowledge of Air Force Technical Orders is a plus but not required
- Thorough knowledge of XML, SGML, XSLT, DTD, XSD, and Schematron is a plus
- Able to receive direction from management and implement directions with teammates