Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a software engineer, web. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for software engineer, web

- Ensuring high levels of quality by fixing bugs, writing unit tests and addressing root causes
- Generally working in a highly team-oriented, agile environment
- You will build infrastructure to handle metadata for hundreds of billions of files, hundreds of petabytes of user data, and millions of concurrent connections
- Develop server-side code
- Play a key role in designing, architecting, and developing MATLAB services, distributed systems and cloud infrastructure
- Design and implement software and infrastructure to support high-availability and high-scalability
- Experience and track record in contributing in core development activities in a distributed Web product
- As a software developer, you will be called on to both work independently and as part of a team on new concepts and ideas
- As a software engineer, you will work on building microservices that will integrate into a number of deployment scenarios including message-driven back-end environments
- Collaborate with other engineers, development teams and senior management

Qualifications for software engineer, web

- Knowledge of deployment tools, such as Chef, is a plus

- Working knowledge of French would be helpful too!
- A minimum of 6 years' experience working in web development
- Significant hands-on experience with a Javascript MVC framework such as AngularJS