Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of software engineer, web. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for software engineer, web

- Optimize application code for speed and scalability
- Implement user input validation
- Apply good programming practices for security and data protection
- You have deep JavaScript knowledge and have worked with Node.js
- You are an expert in web technologies and APIs (HTTP2, TCP/IP, CSS/HTML, Browser JS APIs)
- You are an expert in debugging and profiling Browsers and Node.js, and understand ways to decrease page load speed and runtime slowdowns

Qualifications for software engineer, web

- Comfortable working with and learning newer web technologies (Webpack, React, Node.js)
- Ability to move fluidly between client and server-side code
- 5 years of experience writing web-based software
- Understanding of client-server architecture a plus
- Traditional SQL database experience (MySQL, Microsoft SQL Server, or other)
- Non-traditional database experience a plus