Our growing company is hiring for a software senior developer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for software senior developer

- Support the production of technical estimation and calibration
- Perform code reviews with junior developers
- Contribute to design in discussion with Technical Leads and the architecture team
- Designing and implementing user interface components of web-based applications and websites
- Researching, creating wireframes, designing mock ups, and performing code development
- Designing and building business intelligence solutions with dashboard and report capabilities
- Designing and building data visualization components for analysis and exploration of data
- Providing expertise in translation of the business strategy into technical strategy in the design, development, and implementation
- Implementing up-to-date technologies to improve scalability and maintainability of web applications and websites
- Learning and applying new technologies in the appropriate context

Qualifications for software senior developer

- Can effectively communicate with both internal and external audiences, and with people of varying technical experience (business leaders, other developers of varying experience, QA testers)

- Ability to mentor and facilitate the technical and professional growth of junior team members
- Desire to continue learning and growing professionally, to provide leadership, and increase scope of ownership\influence over modules, applications and platforms
- BS, ideally in computer science
- Web Applications using ASP.net