Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of software senior developer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for software senior developer

- Commitment to continuous software development process improvement
- Participate in creation and ongoing refinement of standards and processes
- Ensure deliverables are built according to standards and processes
- Provide high quality service to IT colleagues and business users
- Participate in team-based quality processes
- Commitment to departmental improvement and project lifecycle processes
- Disposition toward learning, sharing, and growth
- Perform software development of integrations, extensions, and customizations to Oracle E-Business Suite
- Work with business analysts and users to develop software requirements
- Design and build software using various technologies

Qualifications for software senior developer

- Unix (Linux) environment knowledge and experience
- Experience with advanced Unix programming in Java
- Experience with C++, AJAX, and JQuery or related technology
- SOAP and REST services understood and experience
- Familiarity with XML, JSON, XSD and XPath a plus
- Master's or Graduation with specialization in computer science / IT) with minimum