Our innovative and growing company is looking for a solution lead. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for solution lead

- Assume the roles of senior advisor, teacher, mentor and expert to more junior members of the team
- Proven experience leading strategies and projects in a complex business and marketing environment
- Participate in the development of the technical strategy and plan to ensure that the systems and applications developed meet or exceed the business objectives
- Follow established development processes create new engineering practices used by the team
- Lead or independently manage the debugging and troubleshooting of client applications and installations
- Independently tune client applications and installations
- Support or provide client demonstrations and other sales activities
- Produce technical documentation and sales materials
- Provide input to Management for the purpose of evaluating team members' performance
- Lead, execute and manage all technical aspects of SAP Solution Manager landscape including design, installation, upgrade/patching, change management & Production support

Qualifications for solution lead

- Proven expertise in requirement analysis & definition, solution alternative

- Expert influencing skills to manage enterprise stakeholders, business partners, and teams of diverse composition
- Minimum of 5 years industry experience in large scale implementations of IoT platform and related components
- Successful product management track record
- Proven record of delivery and execution on time and budget of IoT projects