Our growing company is hiring for a solutions design. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for solutions design

- Manage commissioning activities at customer's site
- Coordinate work of B.O.'s and external engineering suppliers
- Support in detecting claim opportunity & claim negotiation
- Proactive contribution to Project Engineering activities
- Initiation of validation process and creation of necessary documentations
- Maintain corporate database updated and use common tools as per company policy
- Provide advanced non-technical support during use phase
- Evaluates internal resources (e.g., people, software,) to assist with project assessments for the development of field customer solutions
- Conducts pre-project reviews with SOLDI Managers to provide feedback and support customer solutions training and development initiatives
- Conducts frequent performance evaluations in a consistent, fair, and objective manner to facilitate open communication and encourage continuous performance improvement

Qualifications for solutions design

- Comfort working with a team across multiple time zones and geographies are required
- Open to occasional travel to locations other than the base
- 3+ years of hands-on in development in any of the development languages
- 1+ years in core Java based projects with webservices paying a key role
- Advanced proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite and Adobe Creative Suite