

Example of Special Education Teacher Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of special education teacher. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for special education teacher

- Utilizes Teacher techniques for diagnostic and general check for learning by verbal responses written means
- Creates a classroom atmosphere, which encourages positive student behavior through comprehensive use of the Behavior Management Program and adaptive classroom behavior management
- Consistently uses a variety of behavior management techniques to promote a smooth functioning classroom
- Participates as a member of the treatment team to execute the IEP and for each student
- Acts as a consultant providing direction and assistance to staff who work with the student
- Establishes and maintains supportive working relationships within both the agency/school and the broader community services network
- Provides appropriate representation of the agency/school and its services within the community
- Performs additional duties and activities as assigned by supervisor
- Supervises assigned Teacher Associate
- Develop, write and implement Individualized Education Plans

Qualifications for special education teacher

- Minimum of BA in psychology or related field (as approved by SCR for certification) and preferred one year of related experience

- Minimum, one year in classroom or tutorial settings
- Must hold a valid Minnesota Teaching License in Special Education, DCD Preferred
- Must be familiar and follow Kelly Service policies and school policies