

Example of Specialist Automation Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of specialist automation. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for specialist automation

- Manage the execution of end-to-end campaigns while maintaining cohesive automated workflows
- Maintain a strong technical understanding of Steiner's marketing automation and CRM platforms
- Providing CIDs and landing page IDs or webinars, events
- Participate in the implementation of the power distribution systems, motor control centers, control panels, human machine interfaces (HMI), instrumentation, system integration, and commissioning and start up activities lead by the E&A Engineer
- Contribute to the URS (user requirement specifications) and FDS (functional design specifications)
- Participate in Factory Acceptance Tests (FAT)
- Participate in Commissioning, Qualification, Validation (CQV)
- Contribute to the project close out, including Project Defect Analysis (PDA)
- Maintain liaisons with other departments, disciplines and facilities to provide necessary support and expertise as requested
- Provide technical support to maintenance, production, safety, quality

Qualifications for specialist automation

- Knowledgeable about calibration tools for industrial instrumentation
- Working experience with automation hardware and software products

- 1-2 years' experience in building Excel & VBA applications desirable
- Able to demonstrate advanced level Excel and VBA development
- A keen interest in learning to build process robots (RPA)