

Example of Specialist, Electrical Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a specialist, electrical. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for specialist, electrical

- Providing engineering technical input into external trade associations, technical committees and statutory bodies
- Acting as the senior point of referral for technical issues outside the authority of Engineer Surveyor personnel or where guidance or support is required
- Perform other collateral duties as assigned to meet business needs as they relate to EHS and Quality
- Trouble shoot and maintain integrity of all electro mechanical and PLC related controls equipment throughout the bakery
- Maintain all bakery controls systems
- Perform PM on assigned equipment
- Write and or modify PLC Allen Bradley programs
- Develop and or modify Panelview and Panelview plus programs on new or existing equipment
- Recommend upgrades to systems technology
- Upgrade systems and controls as needed

Qualifications for specialist, electrical

- Development and negotiation of commercial solutions to secure frameworks and specific work packages
- Should have an understanding of electrical power generation protection relay schemes

- To ensure that the electrical maintenance work is executed to the required specifications and scope of work in area of responsibility
- A key focus is also to ensure that work is executed safely
- Electrical Trade