

Example of Specialist, Material Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of specialist, material. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for specialist, material

- Carry-out material selection studies and provide cost effective recommendations for new constructions, modifications, repairs and replacement works
- Provide technical advice on strategies for material selection, inspection and testing requirements, welding and heat treatment requirements, and corrosion protection requirements (such as inhibition, painting, cathodic protection, impressed current and sacrificial anodes) for various engineering and plant modification projects
- Oversee the activities of the Engineering and Construction Contractors / Vendors on all materials engineering related activities
- Oversee detailed engineering activities including formulation and interpretation of material / construction specifications to ensure alignment with corporate policies and strategies
- Interface with Contractor's engineering teams and provide technical guidance and expertise to ensure project requirements are clearly understood and met, in addition to reviewing and approving related technical documents
- Review material requisitions, material selection / proposed alternatives, technical bids and approve or make recommendations to management for approval, as per the Document Distribution Matrix (DDM)
- Review vendors/subcontractors' drawings and related documentations, such as studies and recommendations, to ensure the material engineering aspects meet the design specifications, whilst also commenting on and/or approving

Contractors to ensure the comments are incorporated into the drawings and related documentations

- Maintain ICAR certification annually commitment to other training necessary to perform job duties at the highest level
- The CCR Material Specialist will be a secondary point of contact (POC) for the CCR Distributed Tactical Communications System (DTCS) Netted Iridium program
- The CCR Material Specialist should have a solid working knowledge of the services and goods that will be purchased to ensure that materials and parts utilized in the supply chain meet the minimum requirements for quality assurance standards

Qualifications for specialist, material

- Working experience using Oracle ERP and CAMSTAR MES systems will be an added advantage
- Strong initiatives
- Work experience may be substituted for educational requirements and/or educational achievements may
- Preferred University / College degree in related field
- Prior working experience of minimum 5 years in a relevant field (logistics, production planning or materials management)
- Performs the full range of standard work for the professional field